About Us

Kalyani was established in 1999 as a satellite Town about 48 kilometers north of Kolkata. Designed to become an educational and industrial hub, Kalyani was affectionately called the dream-child of Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy, the then Chief Minister of West Bengal. Though two Universities, two engineering colleges and a good number of regional and state level institutions and a number of excellent schools are located in Kalyani, there was no degree college in the town. Kalyani Mahavidyalaya was established in 1999 to cater not only to the needs of Kalyani, but also the vast areas in Nadia, Hooghly and North 24 Parganas. Kalyani Mahavidyalaya aims to provide the best education possible to students who come from diverse backgrounds. We seek to provide an environment of learning which is beyond the boundaries of class, caste, religion and gender. Students in collaboration with faculty and staff are made aware and sensitive of their moral responsibilities and social issues. Mahavidyalaya intends to provide a platform where, during the most formative years of their lives, students may learn to explore, argue and assess all social, economic, cultural and environmental issues before them. Our Mahavidyalaya endeavors to produce skilled individuals capable of making the world around them a better place to live in.
